EDGEWOOD WINTER GUARD

After a 5 year hiatus, Edgewood's Winter Guard is competing again. Their fist competition was at Franklin Central Jan. 20. They placed third and were invited to advance to the next level. Their second competition was at Danville on Feb. 3rd. They were again awarded third place in this advanced level. They have been the smallest group competing with seven girls. Their best showing so far was last weekend in Scottsburg. They won first place. They have two more shows Feb. 24th at Brownsburg and March 3rd at Northview. With finals being at Center Grove on March 10th. If you can't get to a competition, they are doing a halftime show at the Feb. 20 Edgewood basketball game. The name of the show is called "Redeemed" with music by Charlotte Martin. Please help me in congratulating the staff and the girls on an awesome season. We will look forward to this continuation in the fall.

BOWL-A-THON

We had planned to have a bowl-a-thon fundraiser on Feb 10, but the bowling alley, as it turned out, had a tournament going, so they were unable to accommodate us. We are awaiting a determination on our second choice before making the announcement. Pending approval we are looking at March 24 (very tentative date). Although this will be after the next trip payment due date, it will still be before the final payment is due, and a great chance to make some money for either the trip, or next year's band account!

Stay tuned for more details, and we will have pledge forms shortly and also available at the Booster meeting next Tuesday!

Cordially,
Glen and Rachel Pierson

- Bowl-a-thon at Classic Lanes
- Pledge sheets will be available from Mr. Wells
- Per pin pledge with option for max. pledge.
- Shoes are free, the only cost will be $1 per game, which will be taken out of your pledge profits.
- Adults are welcome to participate.
- Stay tuned for more details
